To a Header.

Last evening Leslie Wright borrowed a bicycle from Dwight Edwards and sailed merrily down the admiring street. In front of Thaxter's he took a header, which nearly ruined his nose, and rendered the machine unfit for service.

Attention Wheelmen.

The members of the Carson Wheelmen are requested to meet promptly at 1:30 P. M. to day at the office of the Secretary.

A contemporary says: "A superstitious subscriber who found a spider in his paper, wants to know if it is considered an omen." Nothing of the kind. The spider was merely looking over the columns of the paper to see who was not advertising, so that it could spin its web across his shop door and be free from disturbance.

We can safely notify the country, says the Salt Lake Tribune, that there will be no Statehood for Utah until it shall be American Statehood. There will be a struggle for it when Congress meets, which will have to be thwarted, but happily it will not be a difficult task. The press and the pulpit will take care of the matter.

Myriads of flying ants invaded the camps of Pine Nut woodchoppers, on Friday and had full charge for some hours. When finally they were vanquished by smudge-fires, it was found that they had made a clean sweep of everything that they could stick their teeth into.

Labor, skilled and otherwise, seems in great demand in the vicinity of Battle Mountain. There are inquiries every day for men to work in the mines, on the ranges, in the hay-fields, or on buildings.

Who's Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

Express train three hours late yesterday.

Freight to Bridgeport is 1½ cents per pound.

Jersey McDonald claims to be a relative of the Jersey Lily.

Lieut. Governor Davis is skimming around the Great East.

Dr. Thoma and his bride have returned to Reno from their wedding tour.

William Cox of Genoa has succeeded Ernest Cary as postal clerk on the C. & C. road.

Senator Stewart and daughter, Miss Maybelle, will return to Carson this morning.

Secretary Dormer and wife, Jerry Bray and wife and Miss Chapman went to Tahoe yesterday.

Work on the Government building may possibly be commenced this season. So vague report says.

FOR SALE.—A large roomy residence in the Western part of the city. Fine location. Apply at this office.

FOUND.—An ivory two-foot rule. Can be had by applying at the APPEAL office and paying for this notice.

Farmers will discuss the water question at Genoa today. It is presumed that there will be some animated talk.

Miss Babcock left for San Francisco last night to spend her vacation. She will be gone about a month.

The Misses Flora, Jessie and Ada Finlayson of Reno attended the musicale at Mrs. D. A. Bender's on Friday evening.

Mrs. S. A. Pettigrew of Genoa sues her husband for divorce and division of property, on account of cruelty. They have been married 36 years.

The White Pine News learns "that trouble is brewing down the valley over the alleged shooting of some of ex Governor Adams' cattle by a valley rancher."

The Found Treasure Mining Company, composed principally of residents of Carson, has made application to have its stock listed at the San Francisco Board.

Bishop Whitaker will officiate at St. Peter's Episcopal Church this afternoon and evening. During the latter service he will administer the rite of confirmation.

Senator John P. Jones, who is reported to be the largest holder of Crown Point shares, says that there is merit in the late development on the 400 level of that mine.

When a coil of lead pipe in front of a hardware store begins to wiggle and stick out its forked tongue it is about time to quit drinking hard liquor and take to Klein's beer.

Pete Musgrove and Ad. Ellis, it is understood, will run a footrace of 100 yards today for $50 a side, at the baseball grounds. Both have light heels and will wag them the best they know how.

A petition signed by 120 persons has been forwarded to Superintendent James L. Wilder of the mail service, asking for a postal clerk on the local Reno train, which crosses the mountains by daylight.

Mike McGowan, the waneater, has been sent to the Storey county jail for six months. He is a stupendous nuisance, with not manhood enough to fill a mosquito's bladder and should be flayed at the whipping-post every day during his term of imprisonment.

Dogs without tags, showing that their owners have not paid the required license, had better keep in the dark next week, for the Poundmaster and his deputy are on the warpath. It will be well for the owners, too, to fight shy of the Sheriff and his satellites.

Harley Meder and T. R. Hoier went on fishing excursion to Hope Valley yesterday, and will return this evening. Fishing is said to be very good at that place just now. There are several Carsonites camping there, and several excursion parties to that delightful mountain retreat are being taken off. Hope Valley offers many inducements for the weary citizen in search of recreation.

Our Sharpshooters.

Today the Carson Guard will finish shooting for the Bullard Arms Company prize—50 shots each, the best individual score to win. Four persons have already completed their shooting, and neither has made more than an average score. Two of the riflemen were so disappointed at their ill luck that they tore up their targets in disgust. It is to be hoped, however, that their competition today will develop something better. Interest in such matters seems to be waning, but it may revive if extra good scores are made today.

Col Thaxter yesterday received from Dover, N. H., the fac-simile of a target shot at in that place July 6. The shooter made 22 consecutive bullseyes, aggregating 200, according to ring target rules and averaging a fraction over nine points—the best scores ever made. Mr. Thaxter in the morning, in private practice at Treadway's Park made 86—8-9-7-10-10 8-7-10-10-10.

A Chinaman who is proud to be called Farmer Treadway, Jr., was hoeing potatoes in the field near the range, and watched the shooting intently. When the hand on the indicator over the target announced that Thaxter had made ten, he rushed up to the latter and sang out, emphasizing his speech up holding up his fingers as he counted.

"Belly good—count 'em 89—two sevens, two eights, one nine, five tens—belly good!"

The Chinaman has been so long employed on and near the target range that he had learned to count the score by the indicator, much to the surprise of Thaxter who wondered how the Mongolian kept the figures in his head continually during the shooting.

Credulous Blubber-Hunters.

There is again some stir in the mining district around Mount Gibbs, in Mono county. Capitalists from the East are examining properties with the intention of purchasing. Work will shortly be resumed on the Great Sierra tunnel, which now extends into Tioga Hill 1,700 feet. It is necessary to continue it several hundred feet further in order to intersect the vein it has been aiming at for six years. Paying assessments on stock in this enterprise, nearly broke the town of Nantucket, in Massachusetts, where most of it is held, so that the credulous old blubber-hunters who had been roped into it had to shut down work for a year or two while they harpooned a few more whales and raised another stake. Now that they have "oiled up" again, they propose to go ahead and see what there is in Tioga Hill. Many persons in Carson are familiar with the district, and some still held claims there.

A Contented convict.

Boarders at the Nevada State Prison are fed upon more succulent beef than the guests at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco get. The choicest animals from the ranges are slaughtered to put fat upon the bones of impenitent convicts. No penal institution in the world feeds its inmates so well. A short-term "con" remarked the other day: "I don't see why anybody bankers for a pardon. This is a good enough place for me. When they send me out I'm coming back as soon as I can, and it won't be any petty larceny proposition either—I'll come to stay."

McCallough's boarders are evidently quite contented—some of them at least.

Cheap Fuel.

The agent of the Los Angeles Oil Company has been visiting Carson and Virginia City to inquire into the feasibility of shipping crude petroleum in bulk for fuel. The company has made a combination and bought up most of the flowing wells in Southern California and will make an effort to control the market. The agent above mentioned says he can furnish fuel to Nevada consumers for much less than the cost of cutting and hauling wood.

A R. R. Horror.

Yesterday's wires brought the news of another railroad horror. An engine smashed into a coal oil car in Ontario, Canada, which took fire. Nineteen people were killed and forty wounded.

Yesterday a $500,000 fire occurred in New York.

PACIFIC COAST RAILROAD.

The strike on the Los Angeles street railway has ended.

Destructive floods resulting from severe rainstorms have played havoc in Southern Arizona.

The Albuquerque Board of Trade hopes to bring another line of railroads through that place.

The assessed valuation of property in Stanislaus county, Cal., has increased over 50 per cent. in ten years.

The reports of recent atrocities by a portion of the renegade Indians who were not captured by the troops in Arizona, are once more reiterated.

Dr. Graham Miller, who has a wife and children at Denver, is in trouble about a girl at Santa Fe, and is threatened with tar and feathers.

The news of the assassination of Mrs. General Bidwell's father has created profound impression at Chico, Cal. and Mrs. Bidwell is the recipient of condolences from her many friends.

On Thursday evening, at Lakeview, Oregon, as John Benefield, aged 17, was driving a band of sheep to camp, he stumbled and fell, discharging a gun he was carrying. The charge blew the back of his head off, causing instant death.

Otto Freundorf, a clerk in Dr. P. Steinhart's jewelry store, at Los Angeles, took $400 worth of watches and chains from the store last Wednesday claiming that he had a customer for them in a saloon near by, and has not returned them. Neither has Otto returned.

Silas B. Bickford, a wealthy cattle-rancher of Western Kansas, arrived in Los Angeles in May to look at the country. On the 4th of July he celebrated at Santa Monica and there formed the acquaintance of three confidence men. They have just succeeded in selling him an option on a big ranch near Santa Monica. He paid down $2,500 and was given a bill of sale. He is somewhat disgusted now to learn that his "friends" had no title to a foot of land anywhere.

No Water Yet.

The artesian well sunk by Senator Stewart on the large lot recently purchased of H. M. Yerington, is down 115 feet, and has not struck water. It passed through alternate strata of hard, tenacious clay and gravel composed of washed granite and crystallized quartz that was hardly moist. The latter formation shows that at some remote period it was subjected to much attrition where water was plentiful, and looks so likely to contain gold that many persons have repeatedly panned it, but "nary a color." The well is in such a promising locality that it will probably be continued down until water is struck.

Baseball Matters.

The Carson Amateurs will go to Silver City today to play a friendly game of baseball with the Prospect Club of that town. Next Sunday they will play the Resolutes for big money. They are confident of their ability to warm the jackets of the Comstockers for the third time. From the two Carson clubs it is believed an invincible nine can be selected. It is proposed to get up a grand tournament some time in September and bank up purses that will attract ball-tossers from the other side of the mountains as well as from all portions of Nevada.

Trains on the Road.

Frank Doten arrived on Friday evening with his fourteen-horse team from Sweetwater, and reports things blooming in that promising section. The new Monte Cristo mill will be in operation in a few days. There are several large teams on the road from Bodie, Bridgeport and Lundy, bound for Carson, to return with miscellaneous merchandise and machinery, from all of which our merchants receive cash benefits, directly or otherwise.
